

Jonathan Biller

Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer

Jonathan Biller joined Vertex in 2022 and is Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer. He serves on the company's Executive Committee and oversees all aspects of Vertex's global legal and compliance functions. He has deep legal, industry and business experience and expertise that will support the company's continued growth.

Mr. Biller joined Vertex from Agios Pharmaceuticals, where he served in several executive roles, including Chief Legal Officer and most recently Chief Financial Officer and Head of Corporate Affairs. Prior to this, he served as Executive Vice President, General Counsel at Celgene, where he was responsible for its global legal function, and before that as Senior Vice President, Tax and Treasury. Prior to Celgene, Mr. Biller was General Counsel, Chief Tax Officer and Secretary at Bunge Limited, a publicly traded agriculture and food company, and held roles of increasing responsibility at Alcon, Inc. during which time it was a publicly traded company. He began his legal career at Hopkins & Sutter, rising to the level of partner, and was also partner at Foley & Lardner after the firms merged.

Mr. Biller received his bachelor's degree in history from Brown University and his law degree from Yale Law School.

Contact:

Jonathan Biller

Executive Vice President and Chief
Legal Officer
he/him/his

Vertex Pharmaceuticals Incorporated
50 Northern Avenue
Boston, MA 02210
+1 (617) 341-6100
vrtx.com

Joined Vertex: 2022

Education:

Brown University
Yale University